DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bertsis, 6,198,996, in view of Hasegawa, 2002/0039951.

3. Bertsis discloses and evaluation and control unit(2); using the evaluating and control unit to evaluate the acceleration forces acting on the motor vehicle on lines 30-35, on column 5; providing a handset connecting to the evaluation and control unit by which a breath alcohol concentration of a user is measure and is sent as a signal to the evaluating and control unit, and activating a relay or switch by the evaluating and control unit for either interrupting or closing a circuit to a starter of the motor vehicle as a function of the signal by opening or closing a switch on lines 17-27, on column 16. Bertsis does not disclose explicitly an acceleration sensor, although it is strongly suggested; and providing an indication as to whether the motor vehicle has been moved or not during a time the accelerating forces were measured. Hasegawa teaches an acceleration sensor; and providing an indication as to whether the motor vehicle has been moved or not during a time the accelerating forces were measured in paragraph 16. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the sensor and indication of Hasegawa in the invention of Bertsis because discloses determining when a vehicle has been stolen on line 13, on column 9, but does not disclose how that is accomplished. Bertsis already discloses measuring acceleration and by using the teachings of Hasegawa theft can be determined by the already obtained acceleration value. This would require less processing and not need additional sensors.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1 through 4, and 6 are allowed.
5. Claims 8 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art of record does not disclose determining a frequency spectrum of the functions with the evaluating and control unit on the basis of a Fourier analysis; if a preset percentage of the frequency spectrum is below a set limit frequency, storing, with the evaluating and control unit, information indicating that the motor vehicle was moved; and if the preset percentage of the frequency spectrum is not below the set limit frequency, storing, with the evaluating and control unit information indicating that the motor vehicle was not moved.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 5 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
